

Art Show Request for Participation

2012 Human Resources Conference “The Art of Human Resources”

The Territorial Headquarters Human Resources Department is looking for artists!! Is art your passion? Would you be willing to display your art for others to view? If so, you will have an opportunity to display your artistic paintings, sculpture, quilting, sketches, etc., at the 2012 Human Resources Conference on Monday, April 30, 2012.

If interested in participating, please send an email to Debra Elder, Territorial Human Resources Department, at debra\_elder@uss.salvationarmy.org and include the following information: (1) Type and Size of Art
(2) Display Table Requirement

Please send your email response by no later than Friday, January 27, 2012

Note: All art work must be transported to and from the Conference by the artist. While display tables will be provided, if requested, the artist will be responsible for setting up and removing the art work. Art work will be displayed for a two-hour time frame on Monday, April 30, 2012. The Salvation Army will not assume any liability for any item lost, stolen or damaged.

Painting

Sculpture

Quilting

Sketching

